Marineland vacation rental checklist

Flagler County, Florida | Rules checked November 3, 2026

Scan for the latest version

We couldn't find vacation rental rules for Marineland, a very small town on A1A. You need the state DBPR license, a county business tax receipt, and a Flagler tourist tax account.

> Marineland's code isn't published online where we could find it. Call the town before you list. The nearby Marineland Acres neighborhood is unincorporated, so the county program applies there.

Licensing steps

STATE OF FLORIDA

- [ ] Get the DBPR vacation rental license
  Apply online to the Division of Hotels and Restaurants as a Vacation Rental – Condominium or Vacation Rental – Dwelling, listing every unit address. Approval usually takes one to two business days and the license is emailed. There is no inspection before it's issued, but DBPR can inspect afterward. Post the license (or a copy) in the unit.

- [ ] Renew every year by your district's date
  Licenses renew on a set date for each DBPR district. Brevard and Volusia (District 4) renew April 1, with the half-year rate from October 1. Flagler and the rest of District 5 renew June 1, with the half-year rate from December 1. If you won't rent until after the next renewal date, waiting to apply can save paying twice.

- [ ] Register for Florida sales tax if you collect rent yourself
  Whoever receives the rent collects and pays the tax. Airbnb and VRBO collect Florida's 6% tax and the county surtax on bookings made through them, so if every booking goes through them you don't need your own sales tax account. If you take direct bookings, or a property manager collects rent for you, you or the manager register with the Department of Revenue and file. You stay responsible if a platform or manager doesn't pay it.

- [ ] Meet the state fire safety rule
  Florida Administrative Code 69A-43.018 asks rental homes for smoke alarms powered by the house wiring plus one in every bedroom, NFPA 10 extinguishers, one hour of battery emergency lighting to the main exit, a posted floor diagram showing the primary and secondary exits, and fire safety information for guests.

- [ ] Balcony inspection for taller buildings
  Buildings three or more stories tall must file a Certificate of Balcony Inspection with DBPR every three years. Condo units are exempt when the balconies and stairs are common elements and you give DBPR proof.

- [ ] Keep up the state operating rules
  Keep the unit clean, safe, and free of pests; change sheets and pillowcases between guests or weekly; use cribs that meet federal safety standards; and sanitize dishes between guests or post DBPR's exception notice.

- [ ] Then the county and town
  Most rules that affect day-to-day operation, like registration, inspections, occupancy, and parking, are set by the county and the town. Pick your town for its full checklist.

FLAGLER COUNTY, FLORIDA

- [ ] Open a tourist tax account, even if you only use Airbnb or Vrbo
  Flagler collects its own 5% tourist development tax, and the Tax Collector says the platforms do not send it in. Create an account on Tourist Express and file a return every month, by the 20th, including months with no rentals. You'll need a Florida sales tax number from the Department of Revenue to set it up.

- [ ] Get a county business tax receipt
  The Tax Collector requires a local business tax receipt for every rental property, and county Ordinance 2018-10 requires the receipt number in every advertisement, including your Airbnb and Vrbo listings. Cities add their own receipt on top.
- [ ] Know which program covers you
  Palm Coast and Flagler Beach run their own rental programs. Outside city limits and east of U.S. 1 (the Hammock and the barrier island), the county's short-term vacation rental certificate applies. Bunnell, Beverly Beach, and Marineland have no rental program in their codes.
- [ ] Then your town

TOWN OF MARINELAND

- [ ] Get the state license and county tax account
  Every Florida vacation rental needs the DBPR license. In Flagler you also need a county tourist tax account even if you only book through Airbnb or Vrbo, because they don't send in the 5% county tax, plus a county business tax receipt. See the Florida and Flagler County pages.
- [ ] Ask about a town business tax receipt
  Ask the Town of Marineland whether a rental needs a business tax receipt.
- [ ] Check your HOA or condo rules
  With no town rental rules, your association's documents are often the main limit on short-term rentals.
