Licensing steps

STATE OF GEORGIA

- [ ] Know what the platform collects
  Airbnb collects state and local sales tax, the $5-a-night state hotel-motel fee, and the local hotel-motel tax on its Georgia bookings. Ask any other platform what it collects, and keep records either way.
- [ ] Register for direct bookings
  If guests book and pay you directly, register for sales tax with the Georgia Tax Center and file the local hotel-motel tax with your city or county. If your city or county requires a business license or occupation tax for the rental, the DOR treats you as an innkeeper and you also owe the $5 state fee on direct bookings.

- [ ] Check your city or county
  Most of the rules are local: short-term rental permits, business licenses (occupation tax), zoning limits, and caps. Some cities ban rentals in residential zones. Pick your area.

- [ ] Then your city or area
  Permits, zoning, and the hotel-motel tax depend on whether you’re inside a city. Pick your area.

CITY OF RINGGOLD

- [ ] Check your zoning
  Ask the city whether bed and breakfast homes are allowed in your zoning district; short-term rentals follow the same rules.
- [ ] Apply under oath
  Submit the application with a sworn code compliance form, a sample guest agreement (noise rules, no adult entertainment), proof of ownership and insurance, and your agent’s signed agreement. The city reviews within two days.
- [ ] Post the permit and license
  Post the permit with your agent’s contact, the permit number, the maximum occupancy, and the maximum vehicles, plus the current business license. Show the permit number in every ad.
- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays here owe 7% sales tax, the local hotel-motel tax, and the $5-a-night state fee. Airbnb collects all three on its bookings. For direct bookings, file sales tax (and the $5 fee, if you need a local license) with the Georgia Tax Center. Ringgold charges an 8% hotel-motel tax; file it with the City of Ringgold.
