Licensing steps

STATE OF GEORGIA

- [ ] Know what the platform collects
  Airbnb collects state and local sales tax, the $5-a-night state hotel-motel fee, and the local hotel-motel tax on its Georgia bookings. Ask any other platform what it collects, and keep records either way.
- [ ] Register for direct bookings
  If guests book and pay you directly, register for sales tax with the Georgia Tax Center and file the local hotel-motel tax with your city or county. If your city or county requires a business license or occupation tax for the rental, the DOR treats you as an innkeeper and you also owe the $5 state fee on direct bookings.

- [ ] Check your city or county
  Most of the rules are local: short-term rental permits, business licenses (occupation tax), zoning limits, and caps. Some cities ban rentals in residential zones. Pick your area.

DAWSON COUNTY, GEORGIA

- [ ] Then your city or area
  Permits, zoning, and the hotel-motel tax depend on whether you're inside a city. Pick your area.

CITY OF DAWSONVILLE

- [ ] Apply to Planning and Zoning
  Submit a notarized application with all owners, your 24-hour agent, parking spaces, adjoining owners' names and addresses, proof of ownership, and insurance showing short-term rental use. The city sends your application to adjacent owners before issuing the first license.
- [ ] Renew on time
  Renewal packages go out by November 1 and are due by 4 p.m. November 20; after December 20 you must reapply and stop renting until approved.
- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays here owe 8% sales tax, the local hotel-motel tax, and the $5-a-night state fee. Airbnb collects all three on its bookings. For direct bookings, file sales tax (and the $5 fee, if you need a local license) with the Georgia Tax Center. Dawsonville charges a 6% hotel-motel tax; file it with the City of Dawsonville.
