Peachtree Corners vacation rental checklist

Gwinnett County, Georgia | Rules checked November 6, 2026

Peachtree Corners' zoning code treats any rental of a home for less than 31 days as a hotel/motel use and defines houses and apartments as having no short-term rental use. That effectively rules out short-term rentals in residential zones; ask the city before you list.

Licensing steps

STATE OF GEORGIA

- [ ] Know what the platform collects
  Airbnb collects state and local sales tax, the $5-a-night state hotel-motel fee, and the local hotel-motel tax on its Georgia bookings. Ask any other platform what it collects, and keep records either way.
- [ ] Register for direct bookings
  If guests book and pay you directly, register for sales tax with the Georgia Tax Center and file the local hotel-motel tax with your city or county. If your city or county requires a business license or occupation tax for the rental, the DOR treats you as an innkeeper and you also owe the $5 state fee on direct bookings.

- [ ] Check your city or county
  Most of the rules are local: short-term rental permits, business licenses (occupation tax), zoning limits, and caps. Some cities ban rentals in residential zones. Pick your area.

GWINNETT COUNTY, GEORGIA

- [ ] Then your city or area
  Permits, zoning, and the hotel-motel tax are set by each city or by the county outside city limits. Inside a city, the city's own hotel-motel tax normally applies instead of the county's; ask your city to confirm. Pick your area.

CITY OF PEACHTREE CORNERS

- [ ] Ask the city about zoning first
  Because the code classifies short stays as a hotel/motel use, ask the City of Peachtree Corners whether any short-term rental is allowed at your address. Rentals of 31 days or more aren't covered by this definition.
- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays here owe 6% sales tax, the local hotel-motel tax, and the $5-a-night state fee. Airbnb collects all three on its bookings. For direct bookings, file sales tax (and the $5 fee, if you need a local license) with the Georgia Tax Center. DCA's report lists no Peachtree Corners hotel-motel tax; ask the city and Gwinnett County which one applies to direct bookings.
