Darien requires a short-term rental business license from the city manager ($125 a year) and a local contact who can reach the property within two hours. Stays pay 8% sales tax plus the city's 5% hotel-motel tax.

Licensing steps

STATE OF GEORGIA

- [ ] Know what the platform collects
  Airbnb collects state and local sales tax, the $5-a-night state hotel-motel fee, and the local hotel-motel tax on its Georgia bookings. Ask any other platform what it collects, and keep records either way.
- [ ] Register for direct bookings
  If guests book and pay you directly, register for sales tax with the Georgia Tax Center and file the local hotel-motel tax with your city or county. If your city or county requires a business license or occupation tax for the rental, the DOR treats you as an innkeeper and you also owe the $5 state fee on direct bookings.

- [ ] Check your city or county
  Most of the rules are local: short-term rental permits, business licenses (occupation tax), zoning limits, and caps. Some cities ban rentals in residential zones. Pick your area.

MCINTOSH COUNTY, GEORGIA

- [ ] Then your city or area
  Permits, zoning, and the hotel-motel tax are set by each city, and by the county outside city limits. Pick your area.

CITY OF DARIEN

- [ ] Get the short-term rental business license
  Apply to the city manager before you list. Give the owner and parcel details, the number of units and bedrooms, any managing agent, a local point of contact, and the parking spaces for guests.
- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays here owe 8% sales tax, the local hotel-motel tax, and the $5-a-night state fee. Airbnb collects all three on its bookings. For direct bookings, file sales tax (and the $5 fee, if you need a local license) with the Georgia Tax Center. Darien's hotel-motel tax is 5% (DCA report). For direct bookings, file it with the City of Darien.
