Unincorporated Meriwether County vacation rental checklist

Meriwether County, Georgia | Rules checked November 6, 2026

Scan for the latest version

We found no rules for renting a single home short-term in Meriwether County's code, but three or more rental cabins on one tract are a commercial "vacation rental cabin development" needing plat approval. Stays owe 8% sales tax, the county's 5% hotel-motel tax, and the $5 state fee.

Licensing steps

STATE OF GEORGIA

- [ ] Know what the platform collects
  Airbnb collects state and local sales tax, the $5-a-night state hotel-motel fee, and the local hotel-motel tax on its Georgia bookings. Ask any other platform what it collects, and keep records either way.
- [ ] Register for direct bookings
  If guests book and pay you directly, register for sales tax with the Georgia Tax Center and file the local hotel-motel tax with your city or county. If your city or county requires a business license or occupation tax for the rental, the DOR treats you as an innkeeper and you also owe the $5 state fee on direct bookings.

- [ ] Check your city or county
  Most of the rules are local: short-term rental permits, business licenses (occupation tax), zoning limits, and caps. Some cities ban rentals in residential zones. Pick your area.

MERIWETHER COUNTY (UNINCORPORATED AREAS)

- [ ] Planning several cabins?
  A tract with three or more rental cabins needs Health Department and Community Development approval of a preliminary and final plat. It must be at least 5 acres with no more than one cabin per acre, and 10 or more cabins need staff on site when open.
- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays here owe 8% sales tax, the local hotel-motel tax, and the $5-a-night state fee. Airbnb collects all three on its bookings. For direct bookings, file sales tax (and the $5 fee, if you need a local license) with the Georgia Tax Center. File the county's 5% hotel-motel tax with Meriwether County for direct bookings.
- [ ] Ask about zoning and a business license
  Ask Meriwether County whether zoning allows a short-term rental at your address and whether you need a business license. The county zoning code bars renting a guesthouse short-term or long-term.
