Hiram requires a $75 short-term rental permit plus an occupation tax, and caps each home at 90 rental nights a year. A city placard must be displayed on the front of the house during every stay.

Licensing steps

STATE OF GEORGIA

- [ ] Know what the platform collects
  Airbnb collects state and local sales tax, the $5-a-night state hotel-motel fee, and the local hotel-motel tax on its Georgia bookings. Ask any other platform what it collects, and keep records either way.
- [ ] Register for direct bookings
  If guests book and pay you directly, register for sales tax with the Georgia Tax Center and file the local hotel-motel tax with your city or county. If your city or county requires a business license or occupation tax for the rental, the DOR treats you as an innkeeper and you also owe the $5 state fee on direct bookings.

- [ ] Check your city or county
  Most of the rules are local: short-term rental permits, business licenses (occupation tax), zoning limits, and caps. Some cities ban rentals in residential zones. Pick your area.

CITY OF HIRAM

- [ ] Apply for the permit
  Include your agent's 24-hour contact and the number and location of parking spaces. Only single-family homes qualify (no accessory buildings or RVs), and the home needs a current certificate of occupancy.
- [ ] Follow the operating rules
  Show the city placard on the front of the house. You or your agent must be on site within three hours of a request, and you must give the city your guest register within 24 hours if asked.
- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays here owe 7% sales tax, the local hotel-motel tax, and the $5-a-night state fee. Airbnb collects all three on its bookings. For direct bookings, file sales tax (and the $5 fee, if you need a local license) with the Georgia Tax Center. For direct bookings, file the City of Hiram's 5% hotel-motel tax with the city.
