Licensing steps

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

- [ ] Know who owes the tax
  Whoever collects the rent reports the sales and occupancy tax: the platform, your rental agency, or you. Airbnb collects state and county sales tax and all local occupancy taxes on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, register with the Department of Revenue for sales tax and with your county or town for occupancy tax.

- [ ] Use a written vacation rental agreement
  The Vacation Rental Act covers owners and agents renting for vacation stays under 90 days. Have the guest accept a written agreement with the required notices, hold advance payments in a trust account, and keep the home fit and habitable with working smoke and carbon monoxide alarms.
- [ ] Check your zoning
  Towns can't require you to register a rental, but they can limit short-term rentals to certain zoning districts, require a zoning permit, and set parking, trash, and safety standards. Pick your area for the local rules.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

- [ ] File the county's 1% tax
  If guests pay you directly, file Brunswick County's 1% room occupancy tax by the 15th of the next month, even in months with no rentals. In Sunset Beach, Ocean Isle Beach, Caswell Beach, and Holden Beach, pay it to the town along with the town tax; everywhere else, pay the county Revenue Department.

- [ ] Then your town or area
  Zoning rules and some occupancy taxes are set by each town, and by the county outside town limits. Pick your area.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY (UNINCORPORATED AREAS)

- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays under 90 days owe 6.75% sales tax plus the local occupancy tax. Airbnb collects both on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file sales tax with the Department of Revenue. For direct bookings, file the county's 1% occupancy tax with the Brunswick County Revenue Department by the 15th, even in months with no rentals.
- [ ] Ask about zoning
  Ask Brunswick County Planning whether zoning allows a short-term rental at your address, and plan two off-street parking spaces per bedroom. Check your HOA rules too.
