Weaverville vacation rental checklist

Buncombe County, North Carolina | Rules checked November 6, 2026

Scan for the latest version

We found no short-term rental zoning rules in Weaverville's code. Stays owe 7% sales tax + 6% county occupancy tax; Airbnb collects these on its bookings.

> In 2024 Weaverville's Planning Board recommended limiting new short-term rentals to certain districts, but we found no such rules in the town code as of its April 2026 update. Ask the town whether anything was adopted before you buy.

Licensing steps

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

- [ ] Know who owes the tax
  Whoever collects the rent reports the sales and occupancy tax: the platform, your rental agency, or you. Airbnb collects state and county sales tax and all local occupancy taxes on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, register with the Department of Revenue for sales tax and with your county or town for occupancy tax.
  NCDOR business registration: https://www.ncdor.gov/taxes-forms/business-registration
- [ ] Use a written vacation rental agreement
  The Vacation Rental Act covers owners and agents renting for vacation stays under 90 days. Have the guest accept a written agreement with the required notices, hold advance payments in a trust account, and keep the home fit and habitable with working smoke and carbon monoxide alarms.
- [ ] Check your zoning
  Towns can't require you to register a rental, but they can limit short-term rentals to certain zoning districts, require a zoning permit, and set parking, trash, and safety standards. Pick your area for the local rules.

BUNCOMBE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

- [ ] Then your town or area
  Zoning rules for short-term rentals are set by each town, and by the county outside town limits. Pick your area.

TOWN OF WEAVERVILLE

- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays under 90 days owe 7% sales tax plus the local occupancy tax. Airbnb collects both on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file sales tax with the Department of Revenue. Buncombe County's 6% occupancy tax applies; for direct bookings, file it with the Buncombe County Tax Department.
- [ ] Ask about zoning
  Ask the Town of Weaverville whether zoning allows a short-term rental at your address. Check your HOA rules too.
