Scan for the latest version

Duck caps house size and septic capacity by lot size, which limits how many guests a rental can sleep. We found no rental permit in the town code. Stays pay 6.75% sales tax plus Dare County's 6% occupancy tax.

> We read Duck's code on American Legal in November 2026 and found no short-term rental chapter.

Licensing steps

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

- [ ] Know who owes the tax
  Whoever collects the rent reports the sales and occupancy tax: the platform, your rental agency, or you. Airbnb collects state and county sales tax and all local occupancy taxes on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, register with the Department of Revenue for sales tax and with your county or town for occupancy tax.

- [ ] Use a written vacation rental agreement
  The Vacation Rental Act covers owners and agents renting for vacation stays under 90 days. Have the guest accept a written agreement with the required notices, hold advance payments in a trust account, and keep the home fit and habitable with working smoke and carbon monoxide alarms.

- [ ] Check your zoning
  Towns can't require you to register a rental, but they can limit short-term rentals to certain zoning districts, require a zoning permit, and set parking, trash, and safety standards. Pick your area for the local rules.

DARE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

- [ ] Then your town or area
  Zoning rules for short-term rentals are set by each town, and by the county outside town limits. Pick your area.

TOWN OF DUCK

- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays under 90 days owe 6.75% sales tax plus the local occupancy tax. Airbnb collects both on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file sales tax with the Department of Revenue. Dare County's occupancy tax is 6%. For direct bookings, file it with the Dare County Tax Department by the 20th of the following month.

- [ ] Ask about zoning
  Ask the Town of Duck whether zoning allows a short-term rental at your address, and check the size and septic limits before you renovate or add bedrooms. Check your HOA rules too.
