McEwen vacation rental checklist

Humphreys County, Tennessee | Rules checked November 5, 2026

Scan for the latest version

We couldn't find McEwen's code online or any short-term rental permit. You owe 9.75% sales tax + 3% occupancy tax and need a state business tax license once gross receipts reach $3,000 a year.

> We couldn't find McEwen's code of ordinances online, so we couldn't check it for short-term rental rules. Ask the City of McEwen about zoning and any permit before you list.

Licensing steps

STATE OF TENNESSEE

- [ ] Register for sales tax
  Register through the Tennessee Taxpayer Access Point (TNTAP). One registration covers all your rentals in the same city or county. If you take direct bookings, collect 7% plus the local rate and file by the 20th of each month. Once registered, file every month, even a $0 return.
  TNTAP: https://tntap.tn.gov/
- [ ] Get a business tax license
  Rentals under 180 days owe business tax. With $3,000 to $100,000 a year in gross receipts in a city or county you need a minimal activity license; at $100,000 or more, a standard license. Booking platforms don't handle this for you.
- [ ] Know what the platform collects
  Airbnb, VRBO, and other marketplaces collect and remit sales tax and local occupancy tax on their bookings. Keep records showing they did. For direct bookings, you pay sales tax to the state and occupancy tax to the city or county.
- [ ] Then your county and city
  Permits, zoning, and occupancy tax rates are where Tennessee towns differ most. Pick your area.

HUMPHREYS COUNTY, TENNESSEE

- [ ] Pay the county occupancy tax on direct bookings
  Airbnb and VRBO remit occupancy tax to the state for their bookings. For direct bookings, ask Humphreys County where to file the 3% county tax.
- [ ] Then your area
  Pick your area.

CITY OF MCEWEN

- [ ] Register for sales and occupancy tax
  Tax on stays here is 9.75% sales tax + 3% occupancy tax. Airbnb and VRBO collect both on their bookings. For direct bookings, file sales tax with the state through TNTAP by the 20th of each month. We found no city occupancy tax in the state's report; ask Humphreys County where to file the 3% county tax on direct bookings.
- [ ] Ask about zoning
  Ask the City of McEwen whether zoning allows a short-term rental at your address. Check your HOA rules too.
