Tool charges its own hotel tax; stays owe 6% state + 7% city hotel tax. We didn't check the city's code for short-term rental rules, so ask the city whether you need a permit.

> We didn't search Tool's code in November 2026; the rate is what the city reported to the Comptroller for 2025. Confirm with the city before you list.

Licensing steps

STATE OF TEXAS

- [ ] Know who pays the hotel tax
  Airbnb collects and pays the 6% state hotel tax on its bookings. If guests pay you directly or through a site that doesn't collect, register with the Comptroller and file the state tax yourself.

- [ ] Register for local hotel tax
  Your city (and in some places your county) charges its own hotel tax, filed with that city or county, not the state. Airbnb pays it only in the places on its list; everywhere else you register and file it yourself, even for Airbnb bookings.
- [ ] Check your city's rules
  Many Texas cities require a short-term rental permit or registration, and some require an inspection, a local contact, or posted rules. Outside city limits there's usually no permit, but deed restrictions and HOA rules often limit rentals. Pick your area for the local rules.

HENDERSON COUNTY, TEXAS

- [ ] Then pick your city
  Texas counties can't zone, so rental permits and the city hotel tax are set by each city. Pick your city, or the unincorporated page if there is one for your area.
- [ ] Ask the county about its hotel tax
  Henderson County reported a 2% county hotel tax to the Comptroller for 2025. Airbnb doesn't collect it. Ask the county auditor or treasurer whether it applies at your address and how to register.

CITY OF TOOL, TEXAS

- [ ] Hotel taxes on each stay
  Stays of 29 nights or less owe the 6% state hotel tax, which Airbnb collects on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file it with the Texas Comptroller. Tool's 7% city hotel tax isn't collected by Airbnb; register and file it with the city. Ask whether Henderson County's 2% tax also applies.
- [ ] Ask about zoning and deed restrictions
  Ask the City of Tool, Texas whether zoning allows a short-term rental at your address and whether you need a permit or hotel tax registration. Check your deed restrictions and HOA rules too.
