Port Arthur vacation rental checklist

Jefferson County, Texas | Rules checked November 8, 2026

Scan for the latest version

Port Arthur charges its own hotel tax; stays owe 6% state + 7% city hotel tax. We didn't check the city's code for short-term rental rules, so ask the city whether you need a permit.

> We didn't search Port Arthur's code in November 2026; the rate is what the city reported to the Comptroller for 2025. Confirm with the city before you list.

Licensing steps

STATE OF TEXAS

- [ ] Know who pays the hotel tax
  Airbnb collects and pays the 6% state hotel tax on its bookings. If guests pay you directly or through a site that doesn't collect, register with the Comptroller and file the state tax yourself.

- [ ] Register for local hotel tax
  Your city (and in some places your county) charges its own hotel tax, filed with that city or county, not the state. Airbnb pays it only in the places on its list; everywhere else you register and file it yourself, even for Airbnb bookings.
- [ ] Check your city's rules
  Many Texas cities require a short-term rental permit or registration, and some require an inspection, a local contact, or posted rules. Outside city limits there's usually no permit, but deed restrictions and HOA rules often limit rentals. Pick your area for the local rules.

JEFFERSON COUNTY, TEXAS

- [ ] Then pick your city
  Texas counties can't zone, so rental permits and the local hotel tax are set by each city. Pick your city, or the unincorporated page if you're outside city limits.
- [ ] Hotel taxes on each stay
  Stays of 29 nights or less owe the 6% state hotel tax, which Airbnb collects on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file it with the Texas Comptroller. Jefferson County reports a 2% county hotel tax; Airbnb doesn't collect it. Ask the County Auditor how to register and file and whether it applies inside your city.

CITY OF PORT ARTHUR, TEXAS

- [ ] Hotel taxes on each stay
  Stays of 29 nights or less owe the 6% state hotel tax, which Airbnb collects on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file it with the Texas Comptroller. Port Arthur's 7% hotel tax isn't collected by Airbnb; register and file with the city.
- [ ] Ask about permits and zoning
  Ask the City of Port Arthur, Texas whether zoning allows a short-term rental at your address and whether you need a permit or hotel tax registration. Check your deed restrictions and HOA rules too.
