Licensing steps

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

- [ ] Know who pays the tax
  When a platform like Airbnb books the stay, it collects and pays the state sales tax and the local lodging tax for you. If guests pay you directly, register with Virginia Tax for sales tax and with your county or city for the transient occupancy tax.
  Register a business with Virginia Tax: https://www.tax.virginia.gov/registering-new-business
- [ ] Register with your locality if it has a registry
  Many counties and cities require short-term rental hosts to register every year. Registration is a simple filing (your name, each address, and the owner's permission if you lease the home), but listing an unregistered rental can cost up to $500 per violation.
- [ ] Check your zoning
  Counties and cities keep their power to decide where short-term rentals are allowed and whether you need a zoning or use permit. HOA and condo rules still apply on top. Pick your area for the local rules.

PULASKI COUNTY, VIRGINIA

- [ ] Ask how your rental is classified
  Before you buy or list, ask Pulaski County Planning & Zoning whether a whole-home rental counts as a tourist home (part of the hotel and motel use, listed only in commercial-type districts) or is treated as an ordinary dwelling. Lakefront lots in the Claytor Lake Overlay have extra permit rules.
- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays under 90 days owe 5.3% sales tax, and stays under 30 days also owe the local transient occupancy tax. Airbnb collects both on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file sales tax with Virginia Tax. Pulaski County's lodging tax is 5%. For direct bookings, ask the Commissioner of the Revenue how to register and file.
- [ ] Then your town or area
  Each incorporated town sets its own zoning and lodging tax; the county's rules apply outside town limits. Pick your area.

TOWN OF DUBLIN

- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays under 90 days owe 5.3% sales tax, and stays under 30 days also owe the local transient occupancy tax. Airbnb collects both on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file sales tax with Virginia Tax. Virginia Tax lists no town lodging tax for Dublin, so the county's 5% likely applies. Ask the Pulaski County Commissioner of the Revenue.
- [ ] Ask about zoning
  Ask the Town of Dublin whether zoning allows a short-term rental at your address, and whether you need to register or get a business license. Check your HOA rules too.
