Licensing steps

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

- [ ] Know who pays the tax
  When a platform like Airbnb books the stay, it collects and pays the state sales tax and the local lodging tax for you. If guests pay you directly, register with Virginia Tax for sales tax and with your county or city for the transient occupancy tax.
  Register a business with Virginia Tax: https://www.tax.virginia.gov/registering-new-business
- [ ] Register with your locality if it has a registry
  Many counties and cities require short-term rental hosts to register every year. Registration is a simple filing (your name, each address, and the owner's permission if you lease the home), but listing an unregistered rental can cost up to $500 per violation.
- [ ] Check your zoning
  Counties and cities keep their power to decide where short-term rentals are allowed and whether you need a zoning or use permit. HOA and condo rules still apply on top. Pick your area for the local rules.

RICHMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA

- [ ] Ask about zoning
  Ask Richmond County's planning or zoning office whether your district allows a short-term rental and whether you need a permit or to register. Check your HOA rules too.
- [ ] Taxes on each stay
  Stays under 90 days owe 5.3% sales tax, and stays under 30 days also owe the local transient occupancy tax. Airbnb collects both on its bookings. If guests pay you directly, file sales tax with Virginia Tax. Virginia Tax shows no Richmond County transient occupancy tax; the Town of Warsaw charges 6% in town.
